

ENTERING UPON THE LAST STAGE

ARGUMENTS IN HAY- WOOD TRIAL WILL BEGIN TO MORROW

HAWLEY TO OPEN FOR STATE IN THE MORNING

Judge Wood Hears Opinions of Counsel Upon Materi- ality of Certain Evidence

(By Associated Press.)

Boise, Idaho, July 18.—The defense in the Haywood case rested immediately after court opened this morning and without calling a single witness in rebuttal. Judge Wood announced that the opening argument for the state would be made tomorrow morning by Hawley. The jury was not brought into court today. The day is being given over to consideration of the instructions to be given by the court. On this subject, Judge Wood heard the views of opposing counsel who were requested to give their opinions as to the materiality of evidence showing deportations and the employment of detectives by the mine owners and citizens of Colorado.

The session this morning was given up to Darrow in behalf of Haywood. He argued that the showing of deportations from Cripple Creek during the strike period and the connection of the Pinkertons and hired "gun men" should be allowed to go to the jury. Darrow charged the mine owners and detectives with planning a fake week on the Florence and Cripple Creek railway, with the blowing up of the Independence depot and with fostering riot and disorder through hired thugs. Darrow charged the independence explosion directly to J. C. Sterling, the detective of the mine owners. Darrow grew impassioned and hurled imprecations without stint at the detective and Orchard. He closed with a whirlwind appeal for the right to show a conspiracy against Western Federation of miners. Borah will reply to Darrow's argument this afternoon.

Every one who has attended the trial or read the stenographic reports of the testimony published here agrees that the state's case rests to consider the extent upon Orchard. The corroboration promised which would of itself tend to indicate the guilt of Haywood consists of suspicious and inferences—and no one can forecast how the judge will regard those things. The defense made no attempt at explaining or denying the incident of the unsigned letter Orchard received at Caldwell after he was arrested letter which Orchard destroyed and now says he thinks was written by Pettibone. That message contained the sentence: "That was sent to Jack the 21st." The state relies upon the coincidence that Haywood sent Simpkins a draft for $100 on December 21, the chief link with which to connect Haywood with the murder of Stuenkelberg. Next to that the state will emphasize as more than suspicious the telegram Simpkins sent to Haywood on January 4, in which Orchard's pal at Caldwell

ALLEGED CONFESSION BY TEGLER

Newspaper Story That Young German Admits Killing Meadows is Denied By Prisoner.

Special to Daily Leader.

Oklahoma City, July 18.—A local paper, in an extra edition printed this morning, purports to be the confession of Rudolph Tegler to the effect that he is the murderer of James Meadows, for whose murder Mrs. Meadows, wife of the dead man, and Tegler, are being held by the authorities. The confession, which is uncorroborated, is as follows:

"Mrs. Meadows put me up to kill him. We were taking our usual buggy ride Tuesday evening when we started to talk about her husband and his ill treatment of her. She also complained of Mr. Meadows paying court to other women and this gradually led up to the point of doing away with her husband. When I left home that Tuesday night such a thought of killing Jim never occurred to me but I had not been out with Mrs. Meadows very long before she was telling me how I could kill him and how easy it would be for us to escape.

"She said that she had the deeds to all of the property and that we could skip the town if necessary after the insurance money was once collected. Some how or other I consented to carry out her plans. I left Mrs. Meadows wired. "Cannot get a lawyer to defend Hogan, answer."

The defense will ignore the alleged Pettibone letter to Orchard and will argue that the $100 draft was an innocent transaction between the defendant and Simpkins. The Simpkins telegram will be argued with such a message as members of the executive board always sent to headquarters when any member of the Western Federation was in trouble, the policy of the organization was to defend its members who were arrested and charged with crime that in any way involved the federation.

The lawyers are expected to take at least a week or more in summing up and analyzing the testimony. Judge Wood notified the counsel that when arguments commence the court will hold three sessions of two hours each day.

WILL FILE BRIEFS

Convention Attorneys Preparing to Enliven Bonaparte

Six attorneys in the constitutional convention have begun work preparing briefs to be filed with Attorney General Bonaparte setting forth their opinions relative to the initiative and referendum clause in the constitution. The attorneys general holds, it is understood, that the initiative and referendum is a matter of legislation. The attorneys will meet here July 30 and file the briefs. Delegate Williams says that the decision of the Oregon Supreme court, that the initiative and referendum is republican, makes good the proposition in Oklahoma, and that amending this provision in the constitution, so that the legislature may repeal any law initiated by the people, practically inserts the Oregon court opinion in the Oklahoma constitution.

Mr. Hayes says that nothing has been taken away from the force of the initiative and referendum by the recent amendments made, but that on the other hand it is even clearer than before, and if anything stronger, that it cites the fact that the provision is not un-republican in form.

Delegate Williams holds, like Governor Frantz, that when once the proposed constitution has been officially filed with the Territorial Secretary Fison, as such officer, it can not again be recalled and amended. On the other hand he holds that the election ordinance can be recalled for changing, for the reason that the ordinance is law, while the constitution is not and the constitution on which Governor Frantz issues his election proclamation submitting it to the people, cannot be called back after it is officially filed and the proclamation issued.

Williams believes, that in case a writ of habeas corpus should be granted the Woods county attorneys in Washington, the delegates can reconvene and annul their action setting the election date for September 17. He believes the United States supreme court will give the matter precedence in case the writ is issued and would hear it early after reconvening in October.

NEW COUNCILMAN NEEDED IN FIFTH

The city council will meet tonight. Among other things to come up at tonight's session are: A proposition for voting water and sewer bonds in the sum of $50,000; a proposition for voting $2,500 in bonds for a chemical engine for the fire department; the salaries of policemen and the city clerk will be raised; an ordinance will be passed condemning all wooden and galvanized awnings that have not been removed from the store buildings on principal streets; the Sunday closing ordinance, which the Sunday closing ordinance, will come up for a final hearing; the paving of more streets will be taken up.

A successor is to be chosen for Councilman Douglas who has moved from the Fifth ward. F. B. Little and "Bob" Overton are mentioned for the vacancy.

KOREAN EMPEROR INDIGNANT

ASKED TO RESIGN, DOES SOME "FIRING" HIMSELF

CLAIMS THRONE BY INHERITED RIGHT

Meanwhile Tokio Calmly An- nounces That Vacancy Will Soon Exist

(By Associated Press.)

Tokio, July 18.—It is very probable that the emperor of Korea will abdicate in favor of the crown prince as the first step toward reform in Korea.

Koreans Sore at Japanese. Seoul, July 18.—Placards were posted today throughout the city calling for the death of all Japanese officials in Seoul. The ministers are strongly guarded and every precaution has been taken to prevent riots and attacks upon officials.

Seoul, July 18.—The cabinet ministers have resigned and it is reported that the emperor is very angry at his ministers on account of their having advised him by a right inherited from his ancestors and his subjects had no authority to advise demeritment.

Marquis Ito, in compliance with the emperor's urgent desire to see him, proceeded to the palace this afternoon.

Yi Deon, or Yi Heung, the self-styled emperor of Korea, was born in 1852, became king of Korea in 1894, and proclaimed himself emperor in 1897.

His rule has not been happy. Before Japan virtually deposed him under pretense of freeing him from China's yoke he was beset by intrigues and factions.

For years the emperor's chief adviser and friend was General Dye, an American, who succeeded in instituting many reforms in the Korean nation.

In March, 1899, the emperor caused a sensation in the capital by appearing in a full uniform cut in American fashion and without his topknot or short queue, which, from time immemorial, has adorned the top of the Korean ruler's head. His attendants were also attired in American style.

PROGRAM COMPLETED FOR FIREMEN'S MEETING

The program for the three days' session of the National Firemen's association of the United States, which will hold its tenth annual convention beginning September 3, has been completed by the Oklahoma City chamber of commerce.

Among those who will appear on the program are President James D. McNeill of the association, T. P. Gore of Lawton, Democratic nominee for United States senator; Perry Hawkins of Taylor, Tex., president of the Texas Firemen's association; E. L. Fulton of Oklahoma City, Democratic nominee for congress; F. E. Smith of Arkon, Ohio; Mark Kessler of Oklahoma City, W. C. Gember of Guthrie, Frank Clements of Kansas City, Ham P. Bee of Ardmore, Peter Kipley of Chicago, president of the Illinois Firemen's association; Lawless Lookahl of Rorank, Va.; John Silverwood of Neosho, Mo.; Chief Canterbury of Minneapolis; Robert L. Owen of Muskogee, Democratic candidate for the United States senate; Chief McKinney of McKinney, Texas, and John R. Howe of New York City.

ELKS PARADE BROKE ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS

(By Associated Press.)

Philadelphia, Pa., July 18.—Before a crowd of cheering thousands that crisscrossed the sidewalks and filled the windows along Broad, Market and other leading downtown thoroughfares the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, "The Best People on Earth," held their great parade today. It was the big day of the annual convalesce and the spectacular features of the program attracted thousands of additional visitors from nearby points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The number of marchers broke all records in the history of the order. There were thousands of them representing the lodges throughout the entire country. Many of them wore the regulation

WEATHER FORECAST.

Washington, July 18.—Generally fair tonight and Friday.

long coat and high hat, while others were clad in fantastic costume. The El Paso lodge in Mexican costume the Pueblo Elks with a band of Rocky Mountain buros and numerous others that offered novel features were greeted with enthusiasm by the crowds. The procession started at ten o'clock in the morning and the afternoon was well advanced before the rear guard had passed the reviewing stand.

LOCAL POLITICAL POINTS.

Friends of Charlie Adler say he would be a good county treasurer.

Bart Murphy will be nominated for sheriff of Logan county without opposition.

Albert Ploeger, of Seward township, is mentioned as a candidate for register of deeds.

A Lawrie township farmer remarked today: "Let the Democrats get right. Let's get a good ticket in the field and carry the constitution in Logan. Here's my ticket: Bierer, for senator; Beadles, Duke, Wisby or Herod for representative in the 2nd district; McConney or Helton in 3rd and Horner, Wilson or Brass in 1st district; Murphy for sheriff; Dolcater for longaker for clerk; Foster of Coyles, Cockroft, or Charles Adler for treasurer; Garner or Hancock for register; Calvert for probate judge; Deyeraux or Fernandez for attorney; Hennessey or Foster for superintendent; Burke, Favor and Jernigan for Commissioners.

RENFRO PLAYS THE BLACK TO WIN

Charlie Renfro is uttering. Jim Mahon is gloom.

The "big sprong" has been put again and back against the wishes of Herr Greer and the young Republicans of the city.

A coal black man is secretary of the Frantz club. The cloak man is T. H. Anderson. Under him, serving as assistant secretary is James Mahon, chairman of the county central committee.

It came about like this: A Frantz club was to be organized. Colonel Mahon goes out and lines up the push. After the alignment he drops into Doc Renfro's and says:

"Poo, poo, its 23 for you. We don't need you. Beat it."

"Oh, well, there isn't much to be concerned," says Renfro.

The club line up is made: Greer for president, Mahon for secretary, Guss for treasurer.

Renfro gets busy. The club meets. Greer is allowed to slide through, but Mahon is barred. Renfro nominates Anderson, black, Unanimous. Then Mahon, Baynes is put up for vice president. Mahon for assistant secretary. Carried, onto Mahon. He couldn't buck. The young Frantz Republicans, however, are up in arms. Joke is on Mahon. Meanwhile Judge Perkins is reading issue of Capital of Nov. 30, 1905, which says: "No negro shall hold office in this county hereafter."

At the office of John R. Abernathy, United States marshal, it was stated today that Sheriff Charles I. Purnoy of Pawnee county, and not the marshal's office would have jurisdiction in this matter. Under Sheriff Skinner, at Pawnee, stated that he had the Pawnee county prosecuting attorney look up the law, and as a result the attorney had held that Sheriff Purnoy but the Federal marshal has jurisdiction.

Officer Skinner stated, however, that Coroner George W. Wheeler went to Osage and conducted an inquest and that the body of Bailey had been left hanging until after the inquest. He stated also that a telegram just received announced that John Kelly, the "Katy" brakeman who was shot by Bailey, was dying. Crowds of people had crossed from Cleveland and other border towns to Osage to witness the scene of the lynching. No doubt exists that the guilty negro was lynched.

LYNCHING OF NEGRO PUZZLES AUTHORITIES

A difference of opinion exists between the federal officials in Oklahoma and the authorities of Pawnee county, to which the Osage Indian reservation is attached for judicial purposes, as to which has jurisdiction in the investigation of the lynching at Osage station, Tuesday night, of Frank Bailey, a negro marshal, by a mob.

At the office of John R. Abernathy, United States marshal, it was stated today that Sheriff Charles I. Purnoy of Pawnee county, and not the marshal's office would have jurisdiction in this matter. Under Sheriff Skinner, at Pawnee, stated that he had the Pawnee county prosecuting attorney look up the law, and as a result the attorney had held that Sheriff Purnoy but the Federal marshal has jurisdiction.

Officer Skinner stated, however, that Coroner George W. Wheeler went to Osage and conducted an inquest and that the body of Bailey had been left hanging until after the inquest. He stated also that a telegram just received announced that John Kelly, the "Katy" brakeman who was shot by Bailey, was dying. Crowds of people had crossed from Cleveland and other border towns to Osage to witness the scene of the lynching. No doubt exists that the guilty negro was lynched.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

18-YEAR-OLD RUSSIAN GIRL YEARNED FOR FREEDOM

SAILED AS STOWAWAY Only to Drop Into Arms of Obdurate Inspector

New York, July 18.—Hand-over-hand, in sailor fashion, a diminutive form in male attire came over the side of the Russian steamer Baratov, docked here, and at the end of the spring line dropped in the arms of an immigrant inspector. The hold front and stout heart that had brought Miss Pauline Flaks, aged 18, stowaway, through many perils failed under the searchlight inquisition of the officer, and the girl, bound from Kovno, Russia, for America and freedom, burst into tears. She was sent back to Libau, her sailing port.

To the inspectors she told a story of flight from Kovno, after her parents and her sisters had been killed. How she reached Rotterdam, Holland, whence it was suggested to her that she might be helped to America if she communicated with a man at Libau. This she did, was put in male attire, and traveled among the men of the steerage on the Saratov.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 18.—Before a crowd of cheering thousands that crisscrossed the sidewalks and filled the windows along Broad, Market and other leading downtown thoroughfares the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, "The Best People on Earth," held their great parade today. It was the big day of the annual convalesce and the spectacular features of the program attracted thousands of additional visitors from nearby points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The number of marchers broke all records in the history of the order. There were thousands of them representing the lodges throughout the entire country. Many of them wore the regulation

Philadelphia, Pa., July 18.—Before a crowd of cheering thousands that crisscrossed the sidewalks and filled the windows along Broad, Market and other leading downtown thoroughfares the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, "The Best People on Earth," held their great parade today. It was the big day of the annual convalesce and the spectacular features of the program attracted thousands of additional visitors from nearby points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The number of marchers broke all records in the history of the order. There were thousands of them representing the lodges throughout the entire country. Many of them wore the regulation

Philadelphia, Pa., July 18.—Before a crowd of cheering thousands that crisscrossed the sidewalks and filled the windows along Broad, Market and other leading downtown thoroughfares the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, "The Best People on Earth," held their great parade today. It was the big day of the annual convalesce and the spectacular features of the program attracted thousands of additional visitors from nearby points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The number of marchers broke all records in the history of the order. There were thousands of them representing the lodges throughout the entire country. Many of them wore the regulation

Philadelphia, Pa., July 18.—Before a crowd of cheering thousands that crisscrossed the sidewalks and filled the windows along Broad, Market and other leading downtown thoroughfares the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, "The Best People on Earth," held their great parade today. It was the big day of the annual convalesce and the spectacular features of the program attracted thousands of additional visitors from nearby points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The number of marchers broke all records in the history of the order. There were thousands of them representing the lodges throughout the entire country. Many of them wore the regulation

TWO ROUNDS: SUFFICED LANKY BOB

FITZSIMMONS "GOOD OLD WAGON, BUT DONE BROKE DOWN"

AGED FIGHTER WAS NERVY TO THE LAST

Went Into Ring With In- jured Arm Rather Than Disappoint Crowd.

Philadelphia, July 18.—Lanky Bob Fitzsimmons, the "grand old man" of the pugilistic ring, with his right arm crippled so badly that he could hardly use it, was knocked out in the second round of his scheduled six round bout with Arthur Johnson, the California negro, popularly known as Jack Johnson.

After being considered one of the "big boys" for the past five years, Fitzsimmons gathered up his nerve and tried to demonstrate that there was one more fight in him. He was mistaken, however. The man of forty-five was no match for the one of twenty-nine years. Fitzsimmons went down a victim to his own ambition.

Before the first started, however, every one knew of the injury to the lanky one's arm. He met it Monday while sparring with the negro heavyweight pugilist, Joe Jettette, and underwent two operations since, Fitz was game, however, and insisted that he would fight and not disappoint the crowd.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

The blow that put Fitz down did not appear to be hard enough to have done very much damage, but the spectators took the affair very quietly and made no fuss. It was evident to everybody that Fitz was too aged to have had a chance and most of those present were glad that he was not knocked out cold.

TERRIBLE CLOUDBURST AT VIENNA, AUSTRIA.

(By Associated Press.)
Vienna, July 18.—There was a terrible cloudburst here yesterday. Streets are flooded and it is said that the outlying suburbs of NeuWalldorf and Hernalis are destroyed. There are many victims.

and prayer, with addresses by several prominent ministers and educators. Many visitors were in attendance from Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia.

TODAY IN THE DEPARTMENTS.

Charters issued.
Charters were issued from the office of the territorial secretary this morning to the following corporations:

The Oklahoma City Planning Mill company, of Oklahoma City, with $25,000 capital stock. The directors are: J. G. Helton, J. W. House, and A. K. House, all of Oklahoma City.

The Summer Gin and Elevator company, of Summer, Noble county, with $15,000 capital stock. The directors are: Ed J. Coyle, Perry, Edmund Brown and C. D. Barnard, of Osage county.

The Woodward Investment company, of Woodward, with $10,000 capital stock. The directors are: J. G. Gerlach, L. H. Patton and J. H. Hopkins, all of Woodward.

The Arnette Telephone company, of Arnette, with $10,000 capital stock. The directors are: C. O. Shaffer, J. J. Ralston and Henry Arnette, all of Arnette.

The Quinland State bank, of Quinland, Woodward county, with $15,000 capital stock. The directors are: F. E. Carr and J. P. Weiner, of Wellington, Kansas; D. H. Powers and J. C. McPhaden, of Quinland.

New Bank Authorized.
Bank Commissioner H. H. Smock this morning authorized the Bank of Carleton to begin business. The capital stock is $10,000 and the officers are: T. J. Kirkwood, president, W. A. Dorey, vice president, and J. D. Henderson, cashier.

Pardon Asked For Slayer.
Application for a pardon for Charles Simpson, of Lawton, was filed with Governor Frantz today by Attorney Al Jennings. Recently in the district court there Simpson, a young man, was convicted and sentenced to serve two years in the Lansing penitentiary for killing worth Bailey of Kansas City, in a Lawton saloon, on the night of March 20, 1906. The plea for the pardon is made on the grounds that Bailey was a bad man and in 1900 had shot and killed John Kelley, a Kansas City policeman. It is understood that Judge Frank Gillette has recommended the pardon. The papers were all filed today with Attorney General W. O. Cromwell for review.

Agent Appointed.
The Delta Development company, of New York City, notified the territorial secretary this morning that it had appointed O. H. Weddie, of Shawnee, as its territorial agent.

It is the intention of the Oklahoma board of agriculture to take an active part in the entertainment of visiting delegates to Farmers' National congress and to otherwise aid in making the meeting a pronounced success. The board fully recognized the opportunity this meeting will present for some very effective advertising of the new state's agricultural resources.

To File Constitution.
President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

President W. H. Murray said today that he would file the constitution with Secretary Fison next Wednesday.

WILL FREE JANUARY TO-MORROW

MODERN "JEAN VAL JEAN" TO HAVE LIB- ERTY RESTORED

ACCORDS WITH TERMS OF PRESIDENT'S PARDON

Oklahoma Escaped Convict Whose Rearrest Aroused Entire Country.

(By Associated Press.)

Leavenworth, Kans., July 18.—John William January, the modern "Jean Valjean," whose arrest and return to prison last spring attracted attention throughout the country, is to be given his freedom tomorrow in accordance with the terms of the pardon granted by President Roosevelt on the advice of Attorney General Bonaparte.

It was in 1895 that January was convicted of robbing a building at Stillwater, Okla., that contained a postoffice. He was sentenced to five years in the federal penitentiary at Ft. Leavenworth, from which institution he escaped after serving three years. After working through Kansas as first as a quarryman and then as a traveling salesman, he went to Kansas City, changed his name to Charles H. Anderson, and married. He engaged in several kinds of business, finally becoming proprietor of a restaurant, and was well respected.

On